Date of Festival: October 15, 2011

Deadline: September 15, 2011. Mail Teacher Registration Form to LINDA BANFY

Festival Center: Texas Christian University, Ed Landreth Hall

Eligibility: Any music student (piano, voice or other instrument) studying in the metroplex, grades K through 12. Student may participate in one or both Festivals.

Entry Fee: One Festival $12.00. Two Festivals $17.00 (No Refunds)

Each piece played has a four-minute time limit. A minimum of five entries (collectively from all teachers) will be required for instruments other than piano. Please call one of the Chairmen for clarification or other questions.

Awards: All students receive a rating, critique sheet and a participation ribbon. Those receiving a superior rating receive an additional "superior" ribbon. Awards are given immediately after adjudication.

Repertoire: Solo literature or duet (one piano-two students) literature is acceptable. No transcriptions or photocopied music will be allowed. All pieces must be completely memorized.

JAZZ: pieces in a jazz style including boogie, blues, ragtime, Dixieland and improvisation.

ROMANTIC pieces are those composed in the musical era of 1830-1900.

Critique Sheets: Festival critique forms are included with your handbook. There must be one completed sheet for each piece to be performed. Photocopy as many forms as needed. Please be accurate in completing the information. Students must bring original copies of the music of pieces to be played, with measures numbered.

Playing Times: Teachers will be notified of each student's specific assigned time and room location.

Teachers are responsible for transmitting this information to students.

Please indicate on the teacher registration form if there is a specific time needed for a student.

There can be no changes once times are assigned. Students must report to assigned room at the assigned time.

Mail Teacher Registration Form and one check covering all entries to LINDA BANFY. Make checks payable to FWMFTA. No entry postmarked after September 15 will be accepted.
